Create your own verse to the Down by the Bay song by filling in the blank below.

Then draw a picture to illustrate your new rhyme!

```
Down by the bay
Where the watermelons grow
Back to my home
I dare not go
For if I do
My mother will say,
“Did you ever see a

Silly Puppets

With these easy-to-make paper bag puppets, you can sing and act out Down by the Bay! Make your puppets look like the animals in the book, or make up your own rhyming characters, like a bat and a rat.

WHAT YOU’LL NEED:

- paper lunch bags
- colored construction paper
- glue or glue stick
- colored pencils, markers, crayons or paint
- safety scissors
- tape (optional)
- yarn (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Start with your paper bag lying flat with the bottom flap facing up. The flap will become the mouth of the puppet.

2. To make the animal’s head, fold back and secure the two square edges of the bottom flap with tape or glue.

3. Use colored pencils, markers, crayons or paint to draw your animal’s eyes, nose and mouth on the bottom flap of the paper bag.

4. With the help of a grown-up, cut out arms, ears and other necessary body parts from colored construction paper.

5. Glue these cutouts to the paper bag.

6. Be as silly as you want, and use some fun materials to make even more animal features. For example, you can use yarn to make hair!

7. Now, put your hand into the bag to play with your very own puppet!
What's Different?

1. Hair dryer is a different color. 2. Goat in a boat has been added. 3. There are extra watermelon vines.
4. Pants are a different pattern. 5. “Bear spray” label is missing. 6. Comb is missing.
